Greetings in the Name of Jesus! Let's continue our discussion on how to build an effective prayer life.

Ephesians 6:18 "praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints—"

"all prayer" defines as "in various situations, use various types of prayers...", indicating that prayer is not limited to only one particular way or one type of prayer. There are different types of prayer and different types of prayer are governed by different principles and rules. One of the common misconceptions of prayer that many believers have is that they should summarize every prayer with "not as I will, but as you will." The prayer that Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane (Matthew 26:39) is a "prayer of consecration". It was aimed at surrendering His life to God and displaying His attitude towards His life's mission. Jesus did not say in every prayer: " not as I will, but as you will ". When Jesus taught believers how to pray when they encounter problems, he made a different statement. He said in Mark 11:24 : " Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.". This prayer is not a "prayer of consecration" but a "prayer of faith." The prayer of faith is a prayer pertaining to personal needs and it is a prayer that believers use for confidently believing God to help to solve their problems; to change things, or to meet their own needs when encountering problems. Hence, the statement "not as I will, but as you will" is not suitable for the "prayer of faith".

As mentioned, there are different types of prayer and they are governed by different rules, therefore, prayer should not be confined to one particular way. Wrong way of praying will hinder your faith in prayer. We must pray accurately according to the Word of God in order to achieve results. Scriptures reference : (Hebrews 11:1, Romans 10:17 and 2Corinthians 4:13)

Audience Feedback

I often worry about the sins I have committed (not knowing grace and salvation), worry about unknowing faith (the difficulties encountered in faith), worry about tomorrow (the future of my children), worry about being infected by the pandemic. These are the burdens of worry. The Lord said, "Do not worry," for He can deliver me from worry. May the Lord help me to be more faithful. Thanks, GR, for sharing the message today. (Bro Lee, 29 June)

Good sharing and reminder. Difficult times toughen us and bring out our best in living! Thank you! (Jian Qiong, 21 June)

The pastor of my church, in an online Sunday worship message, encouraged us to learn from your videos on how to cope with the post-Covid19 new normal. (Sabah, Malaysia, 5 June)

I listened to "Glorious Workplace" a few times and I thank God. During the sharing, it suddenly dawned on me the direction I should take when faced with the prospect of unemployment. God has His plans for us but we still choose our own ways. (Sis Hu, 9 July)

Thank God for sharing God's message to all brothers and sisters on this platform so that our spirits are no longer thirsty. All glory to God! (Happy Day, 29 June)

Although "No More Tears" has just aired 2 episodes, I can't imagine how this real-life story will turn out. I will follow this program like how I pursue a TV series. (Yoke Mui, Malaysia, 4 July)
