Shepherd's Corner

"It was the best of times; it was the worst of times." With this opening line, the great novelist Charles Dickens kicked off his famous novel "A Tale of Two Cities." It was also his unique way of saying that the good and bad times have been existing side by side since times of old.

Will these words still apply in the future after we have gone through nearly two years of the Covid-19 pandemic?

As God's people sees it, any time is worth waiting for! They are like the Israelites who have experienced salvation brought about through the mighty power of God. Saved from their debilitating miseries under the rule of Pharaoh, these people are on their way to the Promised Land. They have finally broken the chains of slavery and are now free men. As they reached the banks of the Red Sea, Moses led his fellow Israelites to sing to the Lord (Exodus15:1). Miriam the prophet took a timbrel in her hand and led all the women in song and timbrels as they danced in praise of God. (Exodus 15:21)

We must take after Moses and the Israelites in dance and song in praise of God as we approach the New Normal, too. We have to count those blessings from God as we looked back at the road that has led us to where we are today, and sing in praise of Him for His protection and provisions. We want to cast our sights towards the beautiful land beckoning ahead and stay steadfast in our faith under the guidance from God, even as we praise Him for His might and power. We must hold tight to the present, respond collectively to His call and bear witness to what He did for us along the way as one people.

We are still unclear as to what the future has in store for us; at the same time, we are certain to run into many challenges going forwards. Nonetheless, we must build our faith upon the solid rock of His Promise. Follow His lead with peace of mind and absolute certainty that He is showing us the way with His mercy and power, until His Will is done in our midst.

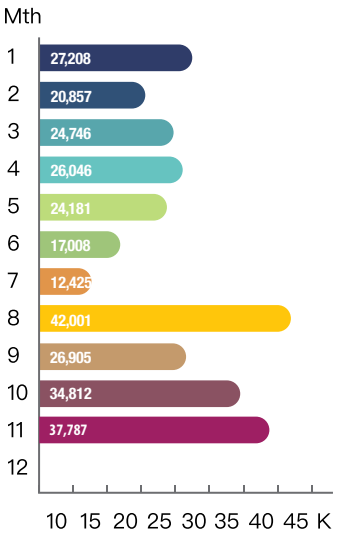

Global REACHOUT celebrated 27th anniversary of its founding online on 11 November. We thank the churches, organizations, pastors and brothers and sisters for their participation, support and being together with us as we linked up to the Kingdom, look ahead in unison and praise the Lord for His blessings. We recall experiencing His amazing grace as we look back into the past, focus on His plans for us as we look towards the future, and waste no time as we respond to His call in the present.

We invite you to partner with us along this road to praise God and bear witness to His work! We welcome you to share your experiences by emailing us at: knowHIM@global-reachout.org.

Home Matters & Intercessions

1. We thank our Lord for his provisions throughout the year. Since its founding on 10 November 1994, Global REACHOUT has, over these 27 years, moved on from wireless broadcasting into adopting the New Media platform as well as augmenting visual programmes onto our hitherto audio broadcasts to cater to the multifarious needs of different peoples. While 2021 had been a tough year, we managed to make it in the respective productions, launched e-books, serving churches as well as believers' enterprises. Good Lord, we thank Thee for Thy Grace!

2. Our work continued to be carried as the Covid pandemic swept across the world over the past two years. Admittedly, we were inadequate at times, but saw the Grace of God showered over us too! We were touched by the timely support from our partner churches as well as our faithful brothers and sisters for their provisions and continue to look up to the Lord for the way ahead.

Audience Feedback

Thank you, Lord, for your blessings. I can always find useful nuggets each time I tune into your programmes. May the Lord bless Global REACHOUT; May your efforts to serve to Him go from strength to strength, in order that more people will be blessed. (A Kernel of Wheat, China, 21 Oct)

Today's talk on relationships between husband and wife in the programme "It is not difficult to have a happy marriage." was wonderful! It was a frank and humourous session. I feel that every couple needs to think along these lines. Let us carry on to build ourselves up. Thank you for your efforts! (Yu Zhu, Singapore, 21 Oct)
