Our Story

Next, under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, she rapidly conducted the SWOT (Strength, Weakness, Opportunities and Threats) analysis for GR, such that she might have a much clearer perspective of GR 's positioning and future direction. As a result, the SWOT analysis helped us uncover the greater potential of GR and thus updated our vision. GR co-workers unanimously agreed that we must not broadcast programs only through radio or restrict our programs to only a particular area or district, but to adopt a variety of social media, using the most effective tools today, to share the love of Christ to all Chinese-speaking communities in the world. The Board Meeting that night also decided of adopting Wechat platform to broadcast Chinese programs, as the first step of realizing the renewed GR vision. What's the outcome? Is that easy? Let us continue to walk with the Holy Spirit. Stay tuned. Emmanuel!

Feedback: Workplace Strategy

In China, working overtime is a corporate culture. We are forced to work overtime frequently and for free. And, if the boss is still around after office hour, we dare not leave the office; we leave the office the very moment the boss leaves. If we leave before the boss leaves, although it is after office hour, we will face all sort of unreasonable challanges. Facing office politics and daily vulgarity, I am truly exhausted and emptied in spirit. I trully felt when I read your webcast article!
