Forgiving Each Other

Ephesians 4:32

Human relationships can bring profound joy, yet they can also cause deep pain. Whether among family, friends,colleagues, or even within church members, hurt and misunderstanding often seem inevitable, giving rise to bitterness and division. Yet the Bible points us to a path of healing and restoration via forgiveness and reconciliation.

Let us reflect on two passages—Ephesians 4:32 says, "Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as God in Christ forgave you."

Colossians 3:13 says, "Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you."

When faced with hurt, our instinctive reactions are often revenge, complaint, or withdrawal. However, the Bible calls us to rise above our feelings and respond extraordinarily.

The Scriptures make it clear that the basis for our forgiveness is: "just as God in Christ forgave you" or "forgive as the Lord forgave you". This means that forgiveness is not based on whether the other person deserves it, nor on whether they admit their wrongdoing,but on God's unconditional love and pardon toward us. We are sinners, unworthy of God's grace, yet Christ has paid the price for us, reconciling us to God. Only when we deeply grasp the Grace we have received can we find the strength and willingness to forgive those who have wronged us. Forgiveness, first and foremost, is a response to God's Grace.

Forgiveness does not mean forgetting, pretending that the hurt never happened, nor does it necessarily require restoring intimacy. At its core, forgiveness is a choice to let go of resentment, bitterness, desire for revenge and entrusting the hurt to God, that He is the righteous judge. When we choose to forgive, we open the way for peace. A Christian community marked by forgiveness and reconciliation is a beacon that the world desperately needs. When others see us seeking unity amid differences, choosing forgiveness amid hurt, and restoring relationships amid brokennes they witness the true power of the Gospel. This is exactly what the Lord Jesus said in John 13:35: "By this, everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another."

Dear brothers and sisters, forgiveness and reconciliation are the blessed paths God has prepared for us. They free our hearts, heal our relationships, and bring glory to God's name in our lives. May we choose today to lay down every burden, to be kind, compassionate, and forgiving toward one another, just as God in Christ has forgiven us. May Christ Jesus, our Lord, fill our lives with His peace and harmony. Amen!

4 Blessings to Rev William Ng！

On August 10, GR staff attended the birthday gathering for Thanksgiving and Fundraising of Pastor William Ng at Bethany Emmanuel Church.

We were greatly encouraged to see God's grace and glory flowing from this humble-looking church to dozens of organisations and hundreds of churches spread across different countries. We also offer heartfelt gratitude to God on behalf of the Church.

6 Online Training Series

Date: August 6 to September 10
GR is hosting the online training series "Building a Marriage Starts with Me", with 37 participants currently enrolled.

In addition to learning new methods and skills through the course, participants will also receive support and encouragement in small-group discussions. We will then move forward to offer training on emotional management and workplace topics. Brothers and sisters are encouraged to invite non-believers to join us and learn to build a healthy family and workplace. This is also an excellent opportunity to share the Gospel.
