Shepherd's Corner

The waters were divided

(Exodus 14:21)

Faced with the Red Sea and unable to turn back, Moses stretched out his staff over the sea as instructed by the Lord …and the waters were divided. The Israelites then walked safely on dry land towards the bank on the other side. When the Israelites looked up again, they saw the Egyptians coming after them and were closing in…. As Moses stretched out his staff a second time, the waters flowed back to swallow up the chariots and horsemen—the entire army of Pharaoh! Through this incredible miracle right in front of their eyes, God lifted the Israelites out of danger and slavery from the Egyptians into their long-awaited freedom. Some of us may ask: since our mighty God is able to part the waters in the Red Sea, why couldn't He just move the Red Sea out of the way and let the Israelites move on? Well, no miracle is too difficult to our Mighty God. However, there is a much bigger purpose behind this: God wanted to take away the worry of Israelites once and for all and display His Glory to the Egyptians at the same time. Most of all, God is strengthening the faith of the Israelites in Him through this episode, so that they can hold fast to this faith when they carry out the mission God has entrusted them with upon entering the Promised Land of Canaan. The people and states around them will thus get to know who the true GOD is.

Today, God may not have removed the obstacles along our way, but He will certainly open up a way for us to move on! Yes, no matter how formidable the task seems to be, Jesus has the power to help us make it. It is for us to walk according to His Will and be scrupulous about it! Caught in a situation akin to the fleeing Israelites, how should GLOBAL REACHOUT go about reaching for its own breakthrough? We are deeply encouraged by feedback from our readers, saying, "We are blessed by your Bible Study programme series hosted by Ms Shi Wei on the Book of Romans and the Gospel of Matthews. Thank you very much! Our brothers and sisters back home are trying their best to download and forward these two programmes. What blessings indeed!"

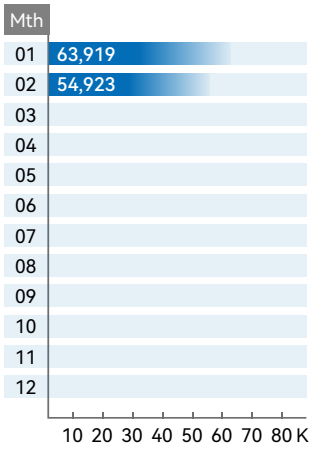

Thanks be to the Lord! Even as you are trying your best to download these items, we will continue to push ahead to produce better programmes with richer contents, and look into how best to deliver them seamlessly. Deep inside of us, we believe that Jesus will be similarly displaying His Glory and attest to us that He is our help in every storm along our way ahead! We look forward to receiving your emails to share your life experiences. Our email address is at: knowHIM@global-reachout.org

Bible Study Series

Previously, my understanding of righteousness was set in the context of morality. How I was deeply touched by the Book of Romans, especially 3:10, "There is no one righteous, not even one"! Scripture reading and sermons by pastor have led me on to the righteousness of Lord Jesus as time went on. I began to understand that there is no one righteous, not even one. I was struck by these words.

Singing Together

We give thanks to our God who loves us. What a mighty God who saves and heals! We pray in our sufferings to the Lord to give us a heart that reaches out for Him, and to look up to Him and cleave tightly to Him, so that He can help us bear the heavy burden that is weighing us down. He will take care of us and see us through our journey. Praise the Lord, may His Love remain with us for ever and ever!

(Lan Ping, 19/01/2022)

I am blessed to come across a series on Communications at Workplace that have pointed me to reap benefits and picked up many techniques and skills in communications.
