Our Story

Our finance was tight and we were unable to renew our office tenancy agreement that was expiring end of August 2017. Our directors were looking around for new premises. Three brothers of her church rendered much help, by letting out a new office for temporarily use, or a small office space within a company, or looking out for office units with relatively low rental. We were touched by their move and love. Thank God that our property owner willingly reduced the rate. However, the floor area was a challenge to GR even if it was cut to half, as we had to pay for the partition and sub-division of water meter. Then the owner referred us to another nearby property where MRT is close by. Her property consisted of two small office units. The door of each room hung a plaque, “PEACE” and “LOVE”. When ‘she’ saw the plaques, they reminded her the phrase she used at work on outgoing emails, “May joy and peace be with you”. Immediately, she sensed the two office units were prepared by God. GR co-workers viewed the premises and found them suitable, one for office, the other for recording. We moved in on 29 August 2017! Thanks to God for His leading in every step. Let’s continue to walk with the Holy Spirit and see you in the next issue of Global Express. Emmanuel!
