

Chairman Keynote Speech Summary

Honorable and distinguished guests, I am delighted to welcome every one of you to our 30th Anniversary Celebration this evening! It is my privilege to take this opportunity to present a summary of our ministry's achievements and share our vision for the future as we reflect on the journey we have undertaken.

Reflecting on the Past

As we reflect on this journey, we are reminded of how we have persevered through the challenges of this path of faith over the years. Indeed, we have encountered countless moments of grace and gratitude, meeting each challenge with resilience and unwavering determination. The 22 years from 1994 to 2016 stand as a testament to our faith, evolving from producing Chinese shortwave radio programs for the Chinese hinterland, into today's offering of Chinese and English series of courses across various new media platforms, alongside the publication of digital and print books. We take pride in this journey dubbed "Three Gs"—Grace, Gratitude, and Grit—values that have served as the cornerstones of our progress through every challenge, big and small.

Our Current Situation

Today, we find ourselves in a VUCA era—one defined by Vulnerability, Uncertainty, Complexity, and Ambiguity. While technology is advancing rapidly, we face challenges like severe polarization, moral issues, and global warming. The growth of Christianity has slowed, and many so-called "nominal Christians" have regrettably failed to rise for the Lord and bring about a positive impact on this age and society. None of these challenges can be addressed or resolved by any one disciple, organization, or church acting alone. This mission requires the concerted effort of the Christian community, bound by a shared commitment. The "Cape Town Commitment" aptly captures the crucial role of social engagement in the Christian community's mission to advance the Gospel, stating: "In integral mission, our proclamation has social (and environmental) consequences… our social involvement has evangelistic consequences. If we ignore the world (including its culture, environment, and society), we betray the Word of God. If we ignore the Word of God, we have nothing to bring to the world." To this end, we call on more churches, organizations, and individuals to join in the mission of impacting communities and working together to advance God's Kingdom.

Looking Forward

Going forward, GLOBAL REACHOUT will continue to promote the establishment of "COD Partnerships," involving close collaboration among Churches, Organizations, and Disciples. Through this partnership, we envisage mobilizing every Christian to be a faithful servant of the Lord, working together to face the challenges of today. At GLOBAL REACHOUT, we have mapped out the following MNC strategy as part of our upcoming new directions:

1.Mission-minded

In terms of course content, we will develop life-transformative materials (including discipleship and pre-evangelism) designed to nurture Spirit-filled, mission-driven, Christ-centered Christians. These materials will help brothers and sisters find direction and support in their faith, fulfill their Christian missions in governance, relationships, and proclamation, and make a greater impact in expanding God's Kingdom.

2.Needed Areas

Special focus will be placed on meeting the needs of Millennials and Gen Z in family and workplace settings, particularly those aged 18 to 43.

3.Collaboration

GLOBAL REACHOUT will continue to collaborate with mission organizations and speakers worldwide to produce a variety of in-depth series of courses and programs. At the same time, we will expand our collaboration with churches in program and course development. This "triple win" approach will create more opportunities for churches to serve, bring increased resources to GLOBAL REACHOUT, and accelerate discipleship, resulting in a profound impact across every sector of society.

We Need You

Mr. Michael Oh, CEO of the Lausanne Movement, pointed out: "The obstacle facing churches today is not 'I don't like you,' but 'I don't need you'." I want to make this call again: Churches, brothers, and sisters—GLOBAL REACHOUT needs you! Join us in our course development efforts, including writing, translation, video production, AI, media platform management, administration, and monetary giving. Let us work shoulder to shoulder and do our best to expand the influence of the Kingdom in this VUCA era! May GR30 not only be a milestone in the history of GLOBAL REACHOUT but also a historic beginning of expanded Kingdom collaboration within the body of Christ. We hope to have more partners join us on this journey in the future, working together to spread and expand the Gospel. Thank you all for your participation and support! Let us finish well!

Activity Feedback

What a blessing it was to be part of this GR30 Celebration, a radiant reflection of God's grace in all its glory!

The exhortative poetry recitation stood out for its uniqueness, and a deeply inspiring message delivered that filled the air. The presence of the Holy Spirit was palpable, bathing the gathering in warmth and an enchanting sense of grace.

It was both gratifying and heartening to witness our GR team members, both on stage and behind the scenes, collaborating in perfect harmony and uplifting one another.

The table gift was both practical and exquisite: two complimentary books that not only deepened my understanding of GR's ministry but also left me profoundly inspired and motivated.

The venue was tastefully arranged, with ceiling lights forming the image of a thematic cross that remained a visual focal point throughout the evening. Meanwhile, the evocative dance performance led the atmosphere to a compelling crescendo.

The entire event was professionally orchestrated, with a seamless flow that captivated guests. They were deeply engaged in the message shared, while also savoring the delectable food and enjoying meaningful fellowship.

Thank you for always being with me
