Itching Ears

2 Tim 4:3-4

These days, the world of internet broadcasting is supersaturated with "influencers" whose "fame" is but a flash in the pan, only to cool off after a short stint of "fame" with "likes" and "view counts" running into tens of thousands at peaks of "popularity". With the crowd in this present age crowing about such figures and serious programmes getting squeezed out of sight, it is also a barometer of the trending of audiences flocking towards brainless entertainment contents, while quality and worthy video clips are left gasping for air.

The expression "itching ears… " in the epistle (2 Tim 4:3-4) speaks volumes of the foresight of its writer on the direction our folks are heading towards in this day and age. Offerings in cyberspace have fallen victim to the sinful human nature of dumping the old when the new comes into sight. These pander to their sensual organs and drag them along to go after contents that are most novel, out-of-the-ordinary and catchiest of them all. These bewitched minds have reached a stage where one is no longer interested in whether such feeds are true or false, harmful or wholesome to one's body, mind and soul…

The call in 2 Tim 4:2 is loud and clear: "Preach the word of God. Be prepared, whether the time is favourable or not…". It is for this very reason that we are pushing ahead to promote and produce our own original programmes. The need flows strongly in us to step up our efforts to protect the firm ground that we are standing on and to move on to spread His Word and Wisdom far and wide. This work is all the more important in an era that is being increasingly drowned out by noise and scenes that can be dressed up to look, taste and smell like the true McCoy, in deceitful preparation to swallow the unprepared ones in its path when time is up.

Are such video clips making their rounds these days a boon or a bane to those who are working hard to spread His Word? Well, it depends on whether our own productions are in a position to grab the viewers' eye-balls and touch the tenderest parts within their inner souls! And there is no way we can fight this battle without fervent support on your part! May we offer our own gifts conferred by Him alongside yours as we work actively in unison to put His Great Commission to work on the ground. This will then empower us to gain more mileage for His own Glory by putting our best foot forward in the world village that we are part of!

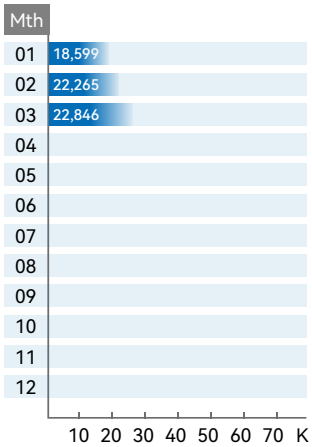

We await your response. Please email us at knowHIM@global-reachout.org

Well done, Preacher Shi Wei. May you carry on with your bible study series, so that more people can have a better grasp of His Word. May our Heavenly Father bless you, so that you, too, can continue to be a blessing to others!
