Our Story

While facing financial challenge then, how could GR possibly open up a new ministry – broadcast English programs? When 'she' was still pondering, suddenly "seek volunteers" flashed across her mind. That was indeed the third key agenda the Board received from above collectively on 24 Feb 2017, next to Optimized Program Quality and Finance Stability. But where to look for volunteers? GR faced difficulties in getting experienced speakers for our Chinese programs in that period, and to start with English programs it looked no way to get volunteers. Surprisingly, GR managed to build a team with the right candidates on script-writing, translation and narration within two weeks and many of them came from the Chinese Fellowship of Queenstown Baptist Church, Singapore. Wow, God's provision in manpower to begin the English programs affirmed that the vision was indeed from above! However, God's calling did not mean no challenge, and our challenge continued. Let's continue to walk with the Holy Spirit. See you in our next issue. Emmanuel!

Feedback: Happy Family

Many people suffer from depression (though mild but stressful). Support from families is limited for they do not understand the condition despite the need for treatment. Families even think the sick pretend while they managed to balance lives at home with fear & anxiety for a long time. Although they wish to make a step forward but afraid that will bring them painful experiences. I often urged them to consult psychiatrists, but could only solve the symptoms. (Yunshang Taiyang, 15/3)

"Moral Kidnap 2" was good but I came to know it a bit late. I put my daughter to stay with a family during her secondary school. She was not treated well and cried badly but instead of consoling her, I slapped on her face. We were poor then, and my husband was an alcoholic. I couldn't take care of her at home. I felt really upset about it and owed my daughter an apology even until now. (Shunqi Zhiran, 28/3)

Feedback: Workplace Strategy

I felt so comfortable after reading your article. Please continue to pray for me that His light will shine upon me and I know His will. Only with that I'm able to have His peace, love and joy at workplace & a life that pleases Him. Jesus loves you & I love you all too. He is indeed my Lord. Amen! (M, 22/3)

I benefited a lot from your articles. They help me to reflect my past in the workplace. I could not find a balance even after I talked with some Christians around me (superiors, doctors & civil servants) about workplace strategy in the eyes of God. It looks like the only solution is to quit the job as my faith is little. May the Lord have mercy on us and open our spiritual eyes to focus on Jesus. May His blessings & grace be with us always. (Excellent Grace, 18/3)

I am so encouraged & touched by Michelle's sharing on Episode 44. The content reminded me that working for God is unlike other jobs whereby I can discuss matters with my superior openly & without fear. It is He who lays the path and surely He leads me through. May God use GR mightily and bless many in the workplace. (Selina Sun, Singapore 2/4)

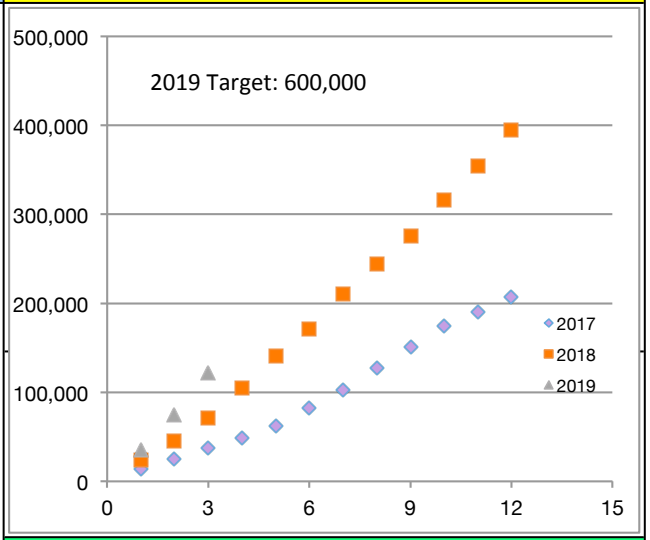

Feedback: Deeper Life

Thank God for the program. I pray that my son and his friend will have the chance to listen to the content and be transformed. Amen! (Chen Dexia, 28/3)

Thank you, our Heavenly Father for wonderful messages on moral values. I have never heard of the topic since young, but it's never too late to find out the details now. Thank GR for the sharing. May God continue to shower His love upon you. (M, 28/3)

Holding tight to the money in hand like a miser, is a Christian of little faith. If a Christian can trust God whole-heartedly for provision, he will enjoy His abundance. Hallelujah. I praise you, God. (Xuejiao, 3/4)
