Proclaim God's Love, Enlighten One's Life

Greetings in the Name of Jesus! Let's continue our discussion on the different types of prayer that are based on different principles.

Last month, I have shared with you that Jesus did not pray the “prayer of consecration” in every prayer, saying " not as I will, but as you will " because He taught His disciples to pray the “prayer of faith” according to (Mark 11:24) : " Therefore I say to you, whatever things you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you will have them.” whenever they encounter problems. The prayer of faith is mainly for the needs of one's life, or the prayer that’s made to confidently believe that God will provide, help and satisfy one's needs when encountering problems.

As believers, faith is the most direct and strongest; but yet simplest and most substantial manifestation of our lives, just as Hebrews 11:1 says “Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.”. The word “substance” in Greek is defined as “solid foundation” and the meaning of “being completely persuaded or firm persuasion”.

In other words, faith is having the certainty of things not seen, or a firm belief in the existence of invisible things, just as God and heaven are invisible, but they do exist. Faith is an inward conviction that is completely unaffected by the environment or the senses (Romans 4:16-21)...

“The prayer of faith” is that you fully believe that God will fulfil the promises made to you in the Bible as well as He will fulfil what He has personally said to you (Jeremiah 1:12) when you pray... to be continued.

Audience Feedback

Excellent topic... Extremely encouraging. It's a must to listen to it. Amen. (JK, Malaysia, 11 Aug)

How encouraging are the voices of our Christian brothers and sisters! Indeed, we are to obey the Lord and not anyone else. Be patient to one another, encourage and love one another. (Shadow, 29/6)

I really enjoy this Bible study series. The preaching on human weakness impacted me and touched my heart. The teaching of “justification by faith” over these 10 months has inadvertently become a reminder for me that I should be thankful and humble myself. (Singapore, 5 Aug)

We should have a good working attitude. Let’s learn from Joseph and glorify God at our workplaces. (XiaoHua, 29 July)

Great message shared on 30/7. Excellent for both Christians n unbelievers. If there is English version, I’m sure non-Chinese listeners will benefit as much as I. (Justine K, Malaysia, 30 July)

I am very thankful that I can be part of it. GR programs are very good which covers a lot of areas in Christian Life. It helps some new Mandarin speaking believers. (Tammy Lau, Sydney, 16 July)

Coming Up Next

We will be airing 2 new English programs next month!

- 《Workplace Strategy》 is for working adults - the Dos and Donts Christians must know! Beginning 10/9.
- Pastor Gary Crowl, our special guest speaker, teaches on the 《Holy Spirit》. 30/9 - don’t miss!

Through the testimony, I see miracles in the lives of ordinary people. It’s so wonderful! I hope GR will share more programs on marriage in future. (Unknown, Malaysia, 5 Aug)

A marriage with God’s leading – husband and wife with different backgrounds walking faithfully together – there is hope. Without Him, nothing is possible! (Yuki Yap, Malaysia)

Very touching testimony! The story is like what had happened to me. It tells us that God is in control of everything. Our loving Father constantly gives us opportunities to be renewed – as long as we are willing to confess our sins and repent. If the story had more details, we could reflect even more deeply, eg. what were the difficulties Yong-Tai faced during his renewal process? Temptation and disobedience are what we usually face. (Sister Huang, Malaysia, 5 Aug)

Family report & intercession matters

1. GR trusts the Lord during this period of time. We have moved to Ubi in early August (our new address below). The new office is more spacious than before – with a video production room – as we expand our existing ministry. We hope to have better connections with churches, Christian organisations and seminaries in the near future.
2. The GR website (global-reachout.org) is further optimised. It is now easier to search through an entire series as well as the latest programs at a glance. Video programs will be onboard soon.
3. Aside from our current programs, we note also the needs of young people and will produce video programs to suit them. For this, we invite churches to work together with us to create 5-minute programs.
