Our Story

In May 2017, subsequent to the personnel changes at GLOBAL REACHOUT, we were fronted with challenges in three areas. We had to make many urgent adjustments and source for more manpower to take over the tasks at hand. Meanwhile, we needed to find ways to minimize expenditures as contributions continued to drop. In addition, the reduced donations made it a more pressing need for us to explore the need to terminate the existing lease of our premises upon its expiry by end-August. During this difficult moment, the grace of God was greater, as He sent committed workers into our midst. We worked shoulder-to-shoulder as a team to ensure a smooth production and transmission of our programs during this trying period. Fronted with the difficulties, we fought like an army of tightly knit warriors! At the same time, we decided to implement a creative manpower organization. We grouped our manpower into three categories, namely (a) official staff (full/part time salaried staff), (b) co-workers (freelance, project-based payments) and (c) volunteers (freelance and unpaid). With this in place, we were able to better manage work spaces, manpower consolidation, reduced expenses as we could produce more variety of professional programs, thereby raising the overall standard. Let us continue to walk with the Holy Spirit and see you in the next issue of Global Express. Emmanuel!

Feedback: Outstanding Leader

I learnt a lot on how to be a well-rounded Godly leader. Through scriptural references, the series showed me how to develop a Biblical worldview, build my character, triumph over pitfalls and many more. There are many skills to learn to be a leader. But I came to know that to be a Godly leader, there are much more to acquire. Interested? Stop by and listen! (Singapore)

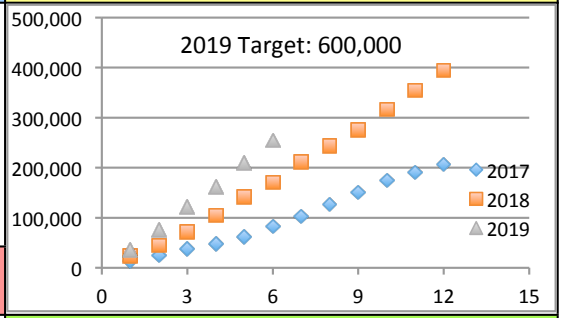

Feedback: Workplace Strategy

The program today reminded me of the word “busy” which “kills the heart” in Chinese language. We should take note and not be trapped, for the loss could be great. (Date with You, 5/7)

Feedback: Deeper Life

Thank you for the sharing. Indeed, ministry and worship are equally important and everyone is a priest. Pray that God strengthen churches and observe this. May His mercy be upon our families. (Brother Lu)

Feedback: The Unequal Yoke

The unequal yoke is a guide for seeking my future love and marriage spouse, it helped me understand why we should keep our Christian faith as foundation stone in the relationship. This series not only encouraged young people looking forward to marriage, it also strengthened those who suffered in unequal yoke at present. We can go through the difficulties by supporting each other as one body in Christ. (Singapore)

The Unequal Yoke was very informational, showing both biblical and real life perspectives of the causes and consequences of unequally yoked relationships. This is truly recommended as a guide not only to our brothers and sisters who are thinking of starting one, but also for those who have already committed themselves to such a relationship. This is also for those of us who may know of others who are in unequally yoked relationships and thus would like to find out practical ways to help and support them in their marriage and walk with Christ. Hope this podcast series blesses everyone as much as it blessed me! (Singapore)

Feedback: Simply Listen

I learnt much! There are many things in the Bible that I have taken for granted eg. God told man about the existence of the tree of knowledge of good and evil, but God didn’t tell man about the tree of life! And man was not forbidden to eat from the tree of life! That was a revelation for me! (Singapore)
