Who Rules in Our Heart?

(Colossians 3:15)

Oftentimes, we are confounded at the workplace by the rough waves and winds from the information tsunami swirling around us - people out there trying to sell their plans purported to bring about instant success, bosses breathing down our necks urging us to catch up with the times, not to mention colleagues assailing us with their conflicting ideas, as the question continues to bother us: who rules in our hearts?

These words convey the notion of decision-making, i.e., who is in control in managing the situation and so on. Simply put, they are looking for the one who will make the decision on who the winner would turn out to be.

Colossians 3:15 says: Let the peace of Christ "rule in your hearts." This biblical verse serves to remind us on the importance of having the peace of Christ rule in your hearts in everything we do. We should not be carrying on with our plans if anything were to bring reproach to our conscience such that the peace of Christ can no longer rule in our hearts, The only way for His peace to be firmly set within our hearts is to invite Jesus to take charge of all that we do.

The expression "let the Peace of Christ rule in your hearts" means having His peace as our compass in making decisions. Christians like ourselves are to beaccountable to Christ as based on His teachings.

We are to work with all our hearts in whatever we do, as working for God. This is because He is our True Boss. Hence, there is a need for us to stay vigilant in the face of any pressure, be these from what are currently fashionable or our bosses are expecting from us. Always be mindful that the final word is with God! Hence, we are to prick up our ears and listen to His Voice at those times when we find ourselves at a fork of the road ahead. This is the only way to go if we are to trust and obey Him. Such a decision would turn work into an opportunity to bring glory to His Blessed Name!

Who is to rule in our hearts? May your answer be "the peace of Christ". Not only would this lead us to the right decision, it will also reward us with peace in our hearts amidst all the tumult and insecurity around us. It is for this reason that I am encouraging every one of us to watch the series of programmes presented by Global REACHOUT. You will find Christian professionals from every trade and occupation sharing their experiences (and indeed their lives) on how they live out their faith in the face of multifarious challenges and exalt His Glory at work. Do not miss this opportunity to stimulate your hearts and strengthen your minds! Take up this offering of ours on your journey towards becoming the true salt and light at the workplace!

Emerging from the Storm

We are not to underestimate the consequences of having extramarital affairs; never boast about one's ability to stand up to these temptations. Instead, we are to stand firm as we look to Him to fight the battles. Thank you, Mr Leng Chin Fai and Programme host Sis. Jin Fang for your wonderful sharing.
